

treatment. Throughout the period, Dr Ian Baker, the District Medical Officer until the formation of B&DHA, was engaged with local cardiologists and cardiac surgeons in discussions, assessments of trends and attempts to develop outcome measures for adult cardiac surgery.