

may require. If, however, your College requires assistance in obtaining the detailed information that you will require, then if you let us have a list of the information required, we would be only too happy to write to the designated units requesting such information by whatever deadline you think is appropriate.

We are most grateful to you and your College for agreeing to undertake this task.

Kindest regards
Yours sincerely

Dr N P Halliday QHP
Senior Principal
Medical Officer